To You We Dedicate

Mr. George R. Wyatt

We the staff of the 1975 Confederate are proud to dedicate this yearbook to our librarian - George R. Wyatt, Jr. His friendliness and consideration for all of us has made possible a relaxed atmosphere in which to learn and work. He has diligently worked to stimulate our interest in learning and provide us with the best library possible. When asked how he felt about teaching, Mr. Wyatt said, "It is a privilege to work with young people. Our students of today are our citizens of tomorrow." To Mr. Wyatt, we extend our sincere appreciation and wish him the best in the future.

ADMINISTRATION

Beverly B. McDowell

Head Master

B.A.BE., B.A., M.A., B.D., M.D.

The emphasis of the Academy is three-fold: (1) Academy excellence (2) Christian discipline (3) respect for the time-honored principles of individual responsibility and constitutional government.

Prevading all of the above, is the high standard that honor and duty play in the development of a well ordered and productive life, as must be demonstrated in the proper respect for God, Family, State and Country.

Further, it is the deliberate intention and constant prayer of both administration and faculty, that the students and graduates of the Academy will become creative thinkers, industrious workers, and Christian patriots.

Let them blossom into deeds."

"It's times like these you come to know how much a part of everything you are."

JUDITH ELAINE BOURNE

is a present
you give yourself."

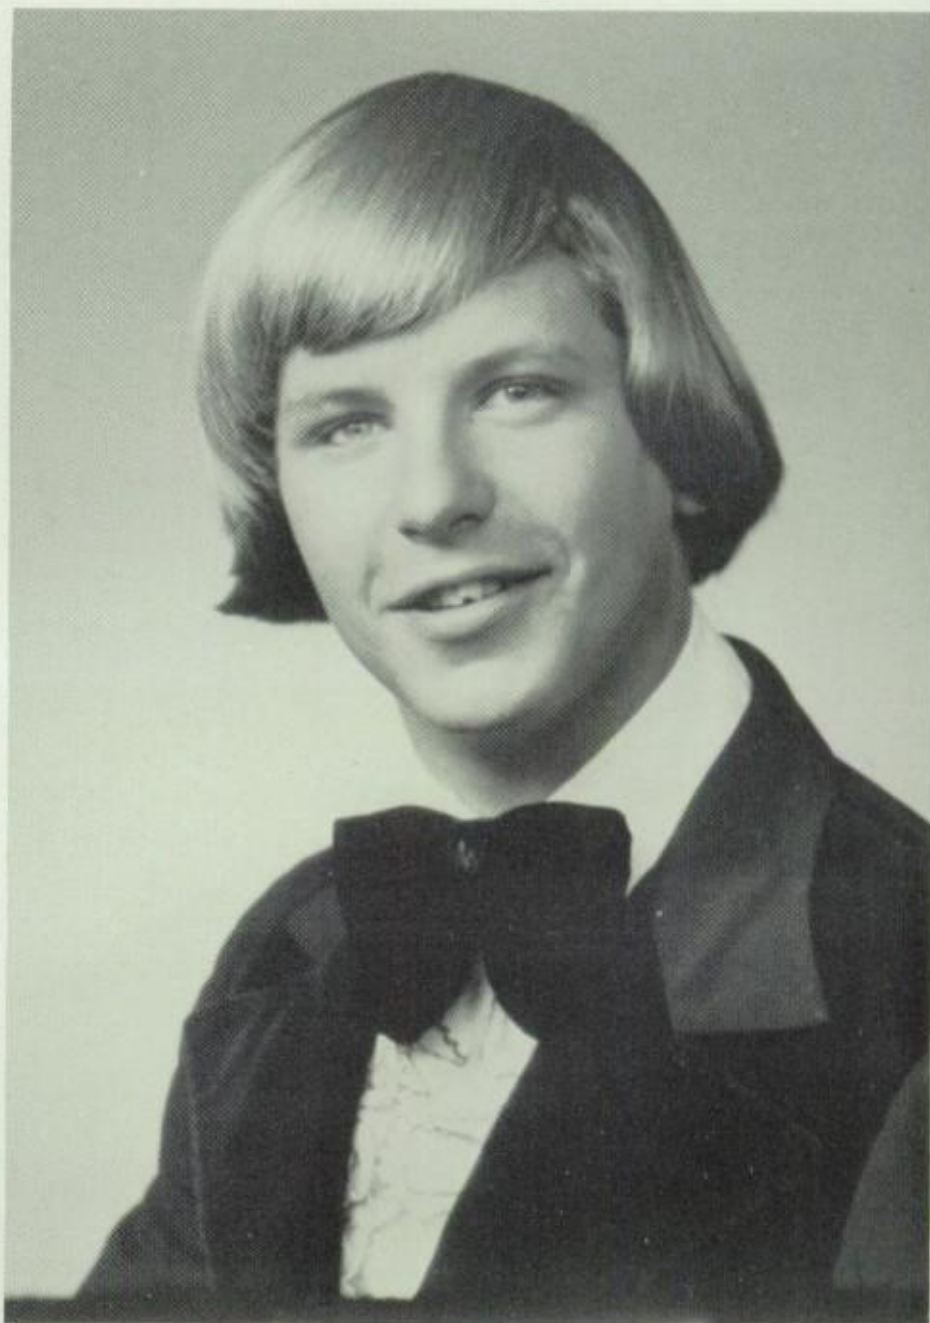

RICHARD PAUL BUNGARD

"Excuses, excuses . . .
Promises, promises . . .
When was it due?!?"

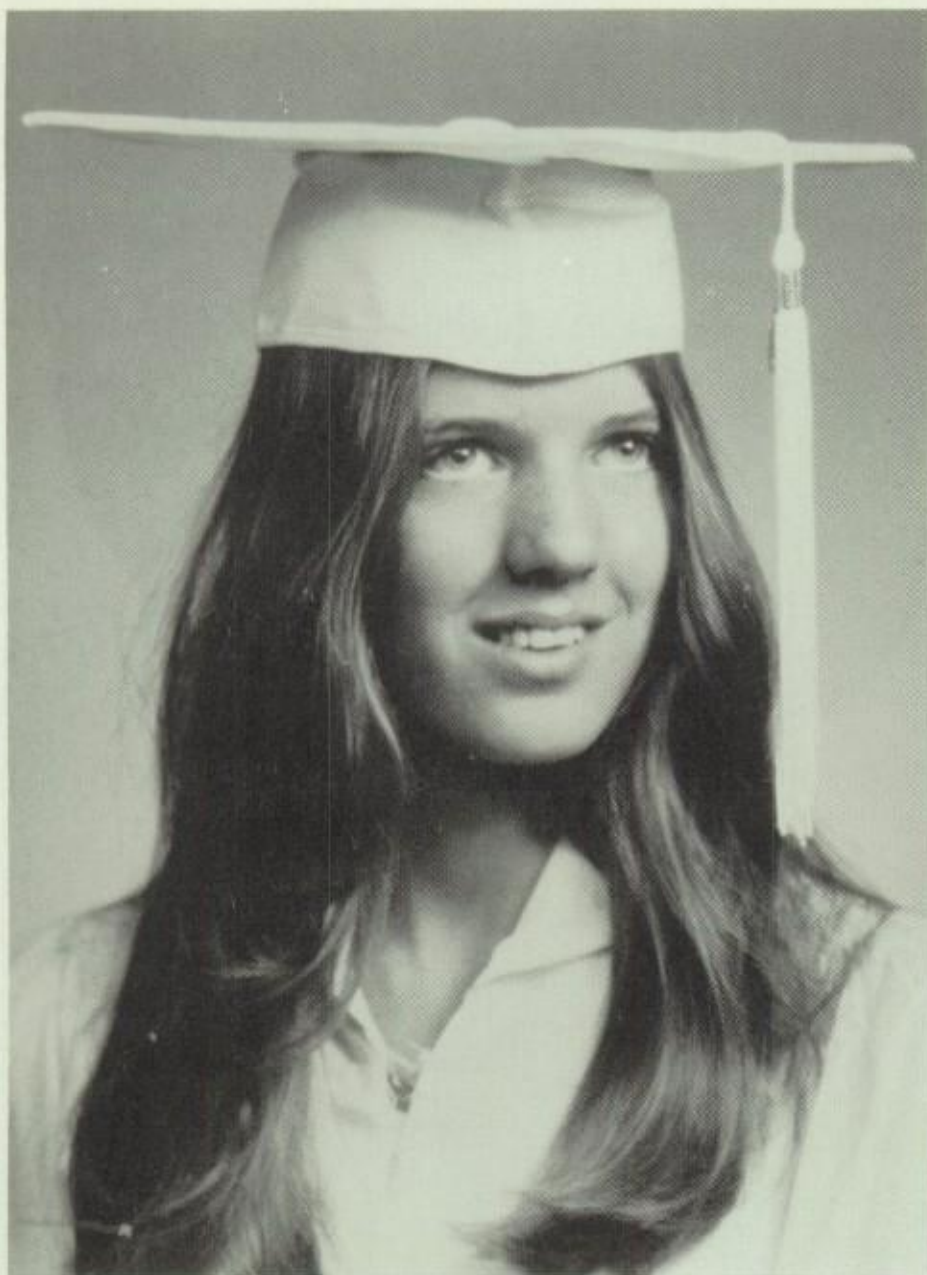

HARRY FREDERICK BURCH

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away."

Henry David Thoreau

DEBORAH GAIL CALDWELL

The greatest kindness we can offer each other is the truth.

GERALD LEE COLE

"Always the same . . .
yesterday, today, forever."

VIRGINIA LYNN GARRETT

"Don't put off till tomorrow what you can do today,
because if you enjoy it today,
you can do it again tomorrow."

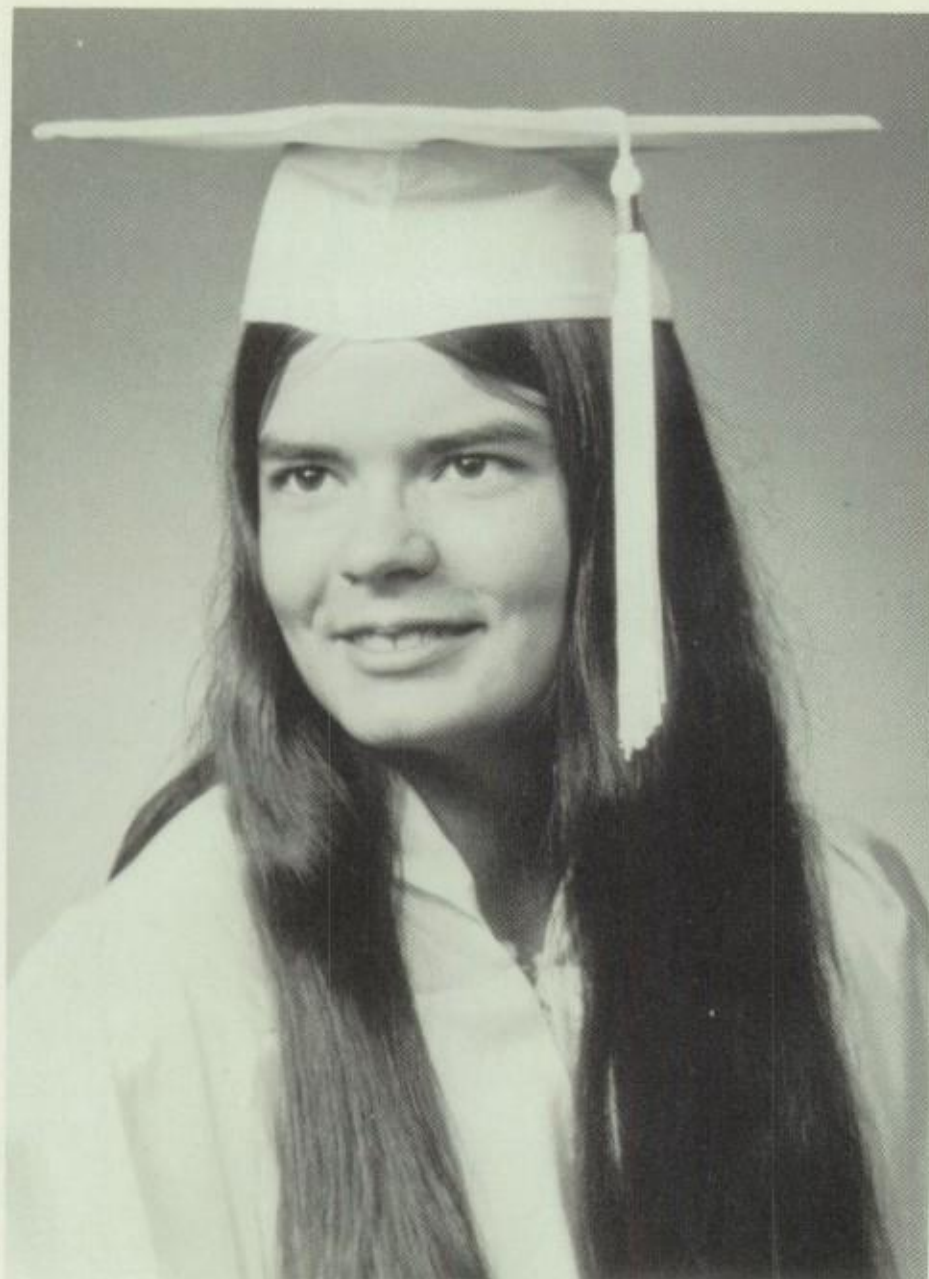

KATHERINE SUE GREENLEE

"A laugh is just like music
it lingers in the heart,
And where its melody is heard the ills of life depart."

SHEILA MAE JONES

"Take something you love and let it go free, If it comes back, it's yours to keep, If it doesn't, it never was."

KATHY GRAY LONGEST

"You've got to get up every mornin' with a smile on your face,
and show the world all the love in your heart,
then people are gonna treat you better,
You're gonna find, yes you will,
that you're beautiful as you feel."

Carole King

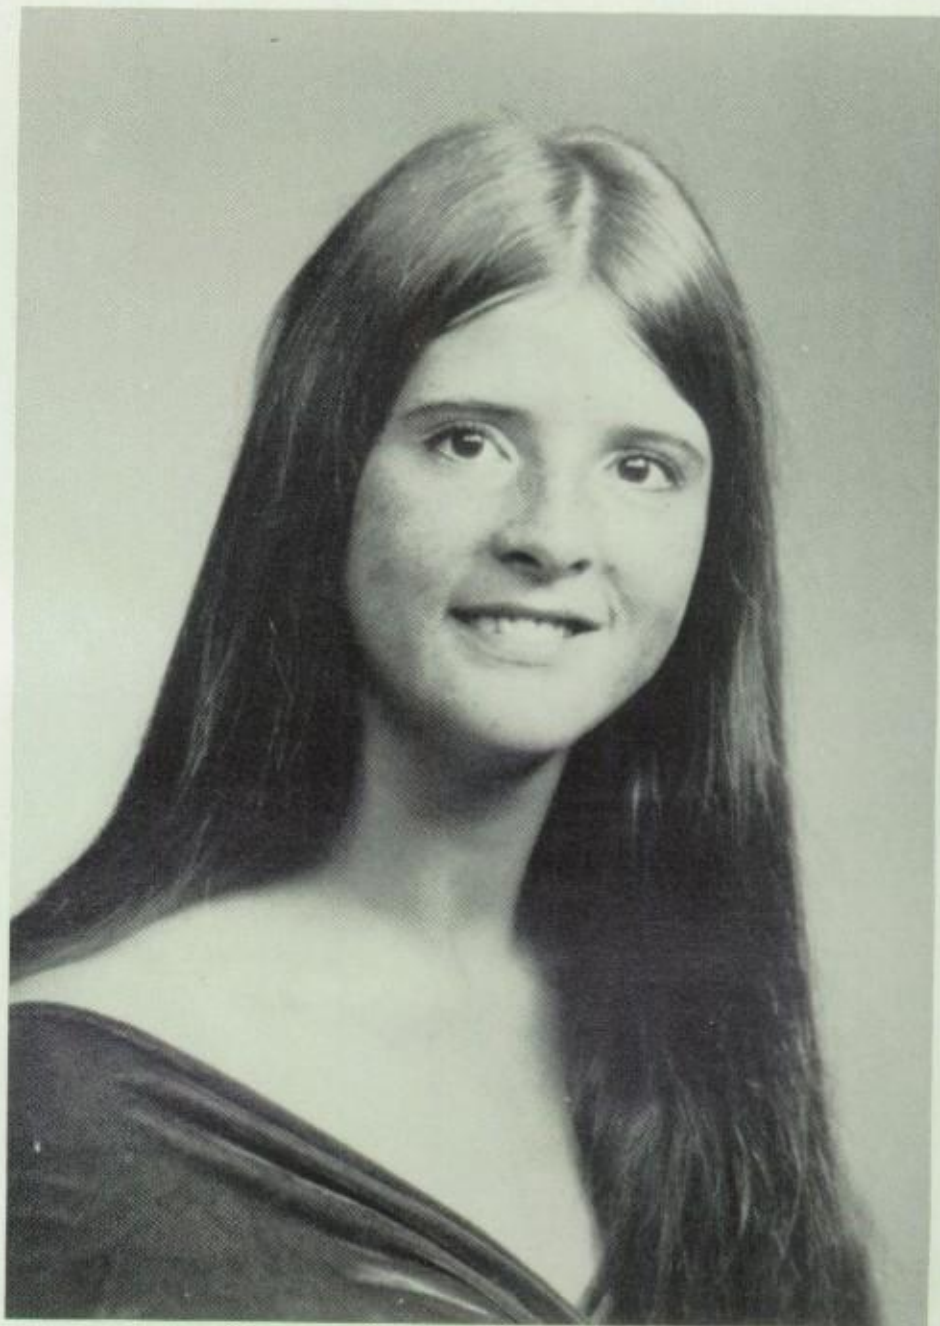

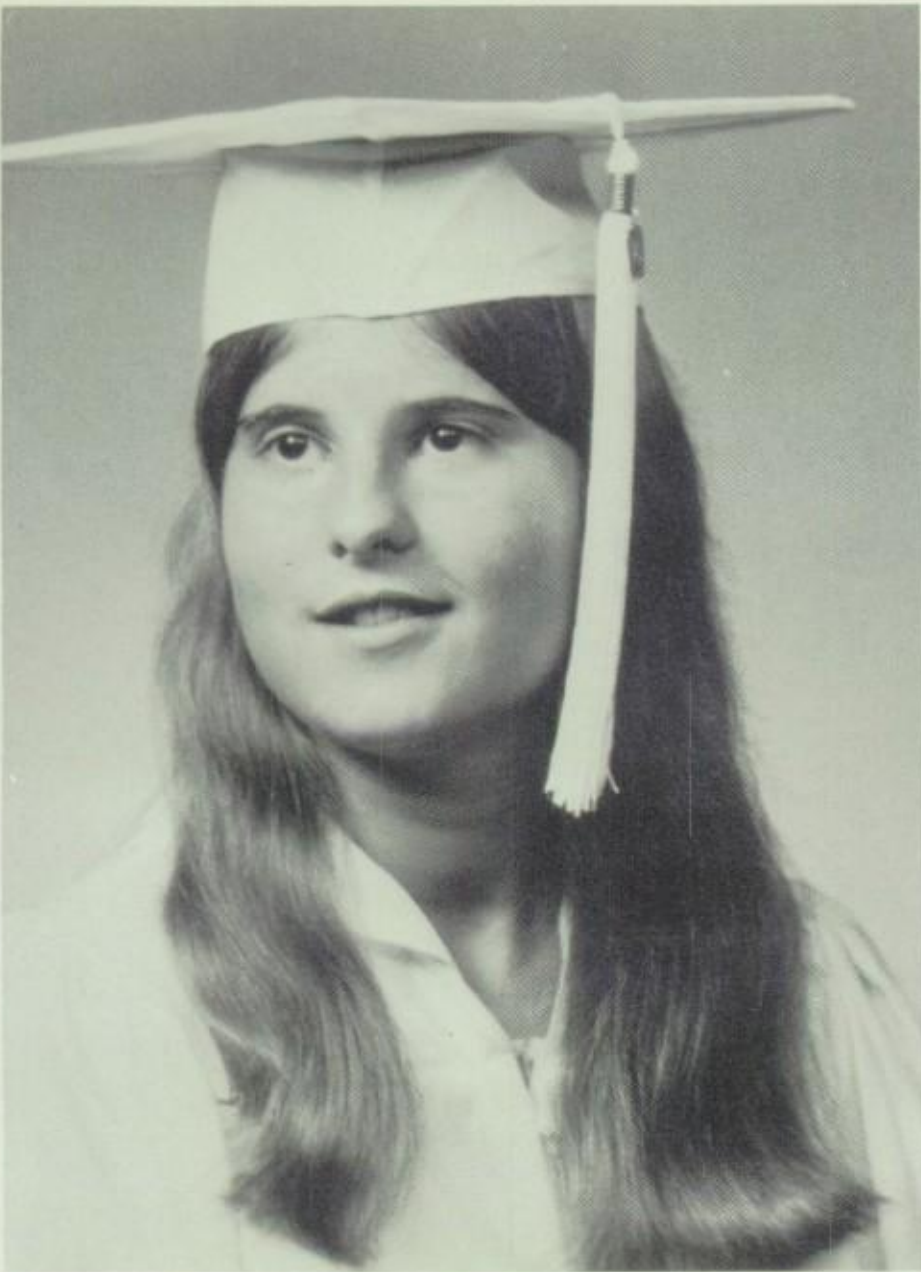

DIANA LYNN PUGH

Once it is broken,
the crack is always there."

NANCY ELLEN REID

Way over yonder - that's where I'm bound."

Confederate Staff Hard At Work!

Pictured above are the members of the Confederate Staff at one of their weekly meetings. Their diligent and sincere efforts, and cooperation from everyone involved helped to make our 75 yearbook a successful project.

Our Business Managers, Pee Wee Hughes and Laurie Thompson coordinated efforts to raise the necessary funds. $800.00 was raised by selling yearbooks, $300 was raised by selling advertisements and $250 was raised from our car washes and bake sales.

Most of the photographs were taken by Richard Bungard and Susan Reid. We like to thank them and everyone who contributed photographs to the yearbook.

The Staff worked continuously throughout the year to produce this book. The cooperation among the yearbook members and their optimistic attitude came together to make this both a rewarding and enjoyable experience.

We like to express our appreciation to everyone who contributed to and supported our yearbook. We would also like to especially thank our sponsor, Mrs. Nancy Williams for her concern and support during the year:
